Dear Sara,

There is a huge transformation taking place in the healthcare community. Medical care has become cognizant of health care as a viable resource. Therefore, it is important, for the newly acknowledged health care facilities to uphold excellence. No longer can we simply say "use us when all else fails". Now it is important to say "we are here and we are certain in our role". At Holistic Health Practice we are committed to the best care for the client/patient. Our standard meets the needs of the community. We are no longer adumbrated by allopathic medicine. We are partners in the quest for better service. The sun doesn't shine because of darkness, it shines because it is the sun.

Continuing to do the truth in love,

Kurt Hill

Sara Speaks

It's officially spring! A time of new beginnings, renewed spirit and joy for what lies ahead. At this time of increased energy and awareness, we welcome you to a new format for sharing HHP information – our newsletter, named The Labyrinth by practitioner Derrick Q. Milligan and designed by our Office Manager, Erika Brown – who lends her creative talent and technical expertise in getting these colorful publications to you. We intend to give you news on upcoming events and the people who bring you their gifts of knowledge and compassion to share. And we invite your comments as to how we might make The Labyrinth more valuable to you.

Aside from a wide variety of workshop and event offerings during May, we are pleased to introduce two new practitioners to our HHP team. They are Laura Sherman and Duane Dobrowolski. Laura comes to us with a background deeply rooted in spiritual therapy and will be offering Akashic Readings here at HHP. Duane has been working out kinks and blockages for over 20 years as a massage therapist with a specialty in structural integration and energy work. I invite you to visit our website for more information about these and all of our HHP practitioners, at www.holistichealthpractice.net.

Thank you for your support. We appreciate your feedback and look forward to hearing from you and/or seeing you at one of our upcoming events.

Enjoy the natural beauty of this season.

Blessings to you all!
